On the 28th some of us members ventured down to Eugene for a shop tour at Classic Rods and Customs, owned by Ron Halsey. Club member Todd Johnson who is good friends with Ron helped me set this up. We were not disappointed, Ron has one first class shop. To say that Ron is a car guy is an under statement, boy can he talk car talk. We got an extra treat when Ron took us to his good friend Gary Reed who is into Poly gas and oil memorabilia. Gary has just about everything Poly you can think of, including a Poly themed 37 Ford panel with a hot 472 h p motor. Thanks Todd. This year our 4th of July picnic will be held at Rich and Delia Wright's, their address is 2726 Michigan City LN NW. Directions are to go over the Marion Street bridge, right on Wallace Rd, out Wallace Rd approximately 3 miles. Turn left on Michigan City Ave go approximately 1/2 mile and you're there. Starts at eleven and goes to ?. Their phone number is 503-763-0526. On June 11th we will have a show cruise out at Les Schwab Tires South. Address is 1405 Barnes Ave. This is in appreciation for their generous donation for the tires and wheels for the T Project. Mike the manager is excited to have us show up with our cars. It's from noon to 3:00 and Chef Reznick and I will be grilling beef hot dogs while they last. (Chips & Pop included). Some notable shows for June are: Captain Michael King Smith Memorial Show at Evergreen McMinnville on Sunday the 12th 10:00 to 3:00. Obsolete Fleet Chevys on the 18th at PGE. Bowers Race Rod Shop Sundae Cruise on the 26th in Aumsville. The Fathers Day Swap Meet on Sunday the 19th at Chemeketa.

Happy Motoring Greg

Les Schwab Appreciation Cruise

The Les Schwab company generously stepped forward and donated the tires and wheels on the club "T" Project that is quickly nearing completion. As a token of our appreciation, we will host a club car show at the Les Schwab store at 1405 Barnes Ave in south Salem on Saturday June 11th from 12noon to 3:00pm. Club members Gary Reznick and Greg Smith have graciously volunteered to "man the grill" and cook up some hot dogs, chips, and soft drinks while they last. They are really excited to have us come so lets give them a good showing. See you there!

Classic Rod & Custom Shop Tour

We had a great Shop Tour at Classic Rod & Custom in Eugene! Thanks Ron & Val and Dave! Everyone had fun seeing your projects and shop! Very nice! Also loved seeing the work you've done on Gary's projects! So fun to caravan over there for a look at all the "Polly Gas" Collection you've done for him! Really a fun day! We even had sun!!!!

Lynda and I went to our first 'Lamb and Wool Festival' in Scio last weekend. Tom Schmid found me the perfect parking spot, right next to his car AND only 50 feet from the gooseberry pie ala mode. Think he had that one figured out!!! There had to be 60 or more cars there. A lot of them I've never seen before. I just love looking at Larry and Victoria's 32 3 window and Rich and Olga's 56 T Bird. It was a cool night and to everyone's surprise...we didn't have any rain. Everyone had their chairs out on the sidewalk and the stories were flying. I think the biggest hit was Margie and Russ bringing the Grandbaby. It was a war to see who got to hold him. He was fussing so then it was who could quiet him? What a cutie!!! Lynda and I were really disappointed after we looked all over and never found Mary or any of the little lambs but, man, they sure had the corndogs!!! three sizes; short, long and longer. I picked the short and it was a meal but it was so funny watching the women ordering the 'longer' and trying to get all that down. Must have been the homemade batter. We even got to listen to a "comedian" on stage. It was a fun night and I'm sure I'll make it again next year....I'll keep you posted.
